Looking for Sponsors!

Meet MacKenley!

He is starting a soap business with Luis. They will be making and selling soap. The soap is called Marouss. They will be renting a place where they can sell out the front and sleep in the back.

Mackenley grew up in an orphanage and is still attending school. Luis also grew up in an orphanage and has a dream to become a Pastor. LOVE Takes Flight is piloting if we can extend our program of adolescent transition to others living in the community. These two adolescents will need support over the next three years to have food, start their business and finish school.

If you are interested in Sponsoring a child we have two adolescents from the Jacmel Community we are serving in our LOVE Takes Flight program! Please contact for more information.

Back to School! October 3rd

School is planning to open in Haiti on Oct 3rd. School shoes have been hand delivered by Rick Wilkerson and Megan Wassom. Thank you sponsors for new shoes!!

The front wall of La Concorde was repainted this summer with so much civil unrest and a failed economy it was a positive to employ Haitians and continue pride in educating.

Thank you to all the crayons and pencils collected by many classrooms around the country at the end of the school year. They will be used by La Concorde students -350, and shared with surrounding schools. Wow what a response!

SAVE THE DATE!

Mark your Calendar! Giving Tuesday, November 29!

Love Takes Root would not be possible without everyone's love, dedication and support.

With much LOVE,

LOVE Takes Root Team
